aXs Info Announces New Certification of Panasonic Scanners

Software solution provider certifies industry-leading document management scanners

ATLANTA, GA. (October 19, 2015) — aXs Info announced today it has formed an alliance with Panasonic System Communications Company of North America to provide more document management solutions to its customers and partners with award-winning products from Panasonic.

aXs Info has certified the Panasonic KV-S1027C, KV-S1057C, KV-5046H and KV-S5076H document scanners with their industry-leading software solutions, expanding their capabilities to provide more value offerings to their customers.

“Over the last 13 years we have helped shape the Document / Content solutions market place through our robust solutions, strong partner network and commitment to our customers,” said Steven Britton - CEO, aXs Info. “As the business workplace evolves, we continue to be a leading force for our customers, allowing them to adapt to new technologies and processes with minimum effort to quickly gain benefits. In order to provide stronger solutions to our customers, we have chosen to partner with Panasonic due to their wide array of quality products, brand recognition and market coverage.”

“The continuing move to digital can be costly and time-consuming for businesses of any size,” said Peter Bedell, Senior Business Development Manager, Panasonic Systems Communications Company of North America. “Our certification with aXs Info will allow both our customers access to a flexible and scalable document management solution.”

aXs Info is a robust and full-featured Document / Content management solution that captures, stores, secures and manages information. Built on an open architecture, their flexible and scalable system is used by businesses and governments of all sizes, yet is easy to implement and use.
